

Present Simple Story: Maria's Artistic Life

Maria is an artist who lives in a cozy apartment in the city. Every day, she wakes up at 6:00 a.m. to catch the sunrise. She makes a cup of herbal tea and sits on her balcony to sketch.

After sketching, Maria heads to her art studio. She paints for hours, often losing track of time. She listens to classical music while she works and takes short breaks to meditate.

Around noon, Maria goes to the local farmers' market. She buys fresh fruits and vegetables and often chats with the vendors. She loves making salads and always adds a dash of olive oil.

In the evenings, Maria attends art exhibitions or visits her friends. She enjoys discussing art and philosophy. Before going to bed at 11:00 p.m., she writes in her journal and plans the next day.

Questions

1. Maria wakes up at _____.
2. After she wakes up, she _____ and _____.
3. List the verbs in the Present Simple in the story.
