

Present Perfect - Time Expressions #1

Instructions: Use the correct time expression (already, yet, just, ever, never) to complete the sentences.

Example:

Question: She has _____ visited London.

Answer: She has already visited London.

1. They have _____ eaten dinner.
2. I have _____ finished my lunch.
3. You have _____ met her.
4. He has _____ read that book.
5. We have _____ seen this movie.
6. She has _____ called me.
7. They have _____ arrived.
8. You have _____ done your homework.
9. He has _____ played soccer.
10. We have _____ visited the museum.
11. She has _____ been to Paris.
12. They have _____ tried sushi.
13. I have _____ spoken to him.
14. You have _____ heard this song.
15. He has _____ left the office.

Answers:

1. They have already eaten dinner.
2. I have just finished my lunch.
3. You have never met her.
4. He has ever read that book.
5. We have already seen this movie.
6. She has just called me.
7. They have just arrived.
8. You have already done your homework.
9. He has never played soccer.
10. We have never visited the museum.
11. She has already been to Paris.
12. They have never tried sushi.
13. I have already spoken to him.
14. You have ever heard this song.
15. He has just left the office.