

Present Perfect - Time Expressions #2

Instructions: Use the correct time expression (already, yet, just, ever, never) to complete the sentences.

Example:

Question: She has _____ visited London.

Answer: She has already visited London.

1. She has _____ called the doctor.
2. You have _____ seen that show.
3. I have _____ eaten breakfast.
4. He has _____ found his keys.
5. We have _____ heard the news.
6. She has _____ flown a plane.
7. They have _____ left the party.
8. You have _____ read this article.
9. He has _____ won a medal.
10. We have _____ finished the project.
11. She has _____ visited her grandma.
12. They have _____ watched the sunset.
13. I have _____ met her parents.
14. You have _____ tried this dish.
15. He has _____ been to a concert.

Answers:

1. She has just called the doctor.
2. You have never seen that show.
3. I have already eaten breakfast.
4. He has just found his keys.
5. We have already heard the news.
6. She has never flown a plane.
7. They have already left the party.
8. You have just read this article.
9. He has never won a medal.
10. We have already finished the project.
11. She has just visited her grandma.
12. They have never watched the sunset.
13. I have already met her parents.
14. You have never tried this dish.
15. He has ever been to a concert.